

Aims - To build a school community which values care, respect and empathy for others and enjoys positive relationships between all its members.

Why? Relationships are at the heart of everything we do at Ysgol y Ddraig. Our school community and every social interaction that takes place within it are based upon respectful and trusting relationships. Our Ysgol y Ddraig Vision and Aims demonstrate the importance that relationships have on wellbeing, positive learning attitudes and outcomes for children in our school community.

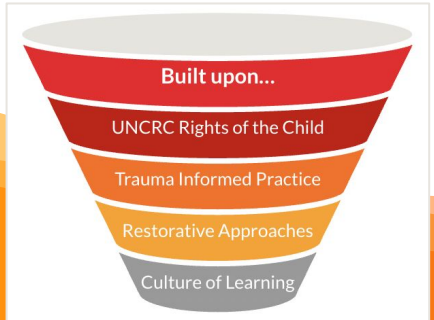

As a team, we will support all children to

- Achieve through high aspirations, high expectations and respect for all
- Challenge through a curriculum that is inclusive, relevant and engaging
- Enjoy learning together, in becoming independent, mindful and active citizens

How?

- Provide an inclusive learning environment, which is happy, safe, secure and supportive
- Ensure well-being is at the forefront of developing resilient, responsible, empathetic and respectful children - who feel valued, listened-to, respected and appreciated
- Appreciate, maintain and strengthen the value of positive relationships between children, staff, families and our community
- We maintain, model, teach and repair relationships within our Ysgol y Ddraig community

A Whole School Approach to Positive Relationships Policy

What?

- Providing learning opportunities that equip children with the knowledge and skills to enable them to form and maintain positive relationships

We ask: Is it safe? Is it responsible? Is it respectful?
